

Testing in the Mobile world

Course 7143 – 16 Hours

Overview

In the recent years, we are exposed to IT organizations dramatic changes, the good and old PC world change to the mobile world that change and improve day by day, all these changes lead us to think differently in the software world, The design process through the development process, and ... Testing process. Like everyone else we have to move forward with the testing environment, This workshop will make us understand the changes and modifications in the IT environments, including entry to the mobile world, Testing mobile software meanings, solutions and trends in that field.

On Completion, Delegates will be able to

- Training participants to understand the changes in the IT world.
- Understand the challenges in mobile world.
- Mobile world testing methodology
- Automated tools and solutions.

Who Should Attend

- Testers
- Team leaders and managers in the testing field
- IT managers who want to understand the Mobile testing

Prerequisites

- Testing knowledge and experience
- Fundamental development knowledge

Course Contents

- The age of the post PC
- Mobile testing the challenges
- Trends in the mobile word
- Functional Testing
- Automated testing and load testing for mobile
- Common known problems in different devices
- Mobile History pros & Cons
- Responsive Web Design